WHEELING, W. VA., WEDNESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 27, 1871.

NO. 106.

The Intelligencer.

Why Not?

Why should not the Grand Duke ALEXIS, be invited to visit Wheeling?
He is at Cleveland looking through the iron mills. We have a few iron mills here and some glass works worth the young man's seeing, and some ale, beer and wine worth his testing. A special meeting of Council might be called, to furnish something in the way of amusement. There might be a parade of the Police, a display of the Fire Department on an excursion on the Street Railway.
There is no lack of attractions, to say nothing of the prettiest women in America.
What is our energetic Mayor about that he don't extend a hospitable invitation to the Imperial son of the Roman-offs? And who can say ALEX. wouldn't come if invited.

WHEELING NEWSPAPERS.—Wheeling contains a population of something in the neighborhood of 25,000 people. For a city of its magnitude and importance, it contains but two newspapers. Both of these are consummate old fogies, and consequently have very little influence upon the public sentiment, considering the influence at their disposal. A live, wide-awake, and enterprising newspaper, is what Wheeling badly needs, of which fact the old residents are not only aware, but it is readily observable to the stranger from first glances at the concerns which now profess to represent the business energy and commercial importance of this splendid center of trade. Such a newspaper would put one hundred thousand dollars into the pockets of the merchants and business men of the city, in one year's time, besides being proportionately advantageous to the pecuniary interests of such an establishment planted in its midst, as a part and parcel of the local interests of the community.—Moundsville National.

How would it do for our friend to move up here with the National? That would wake things up here if anything would.
We have long thought it was a great waste of sweetness on the desert air for such an editor to publish such a paper in such a place as Moundsville, when such opportunities to achieve fortune and fame were going to waste up here. The National would fill the bill exactly. One of its articles on the weather would be worth "a hundred thousand dollars," and in three weeks there wouldn't be an old fogy left—they would just laugh themselves to death over the National's leaders.

It would seem, according to a popular theory, that Christmas has brought the country around to a fresh cycle of crime, chiefly murders with firearms. The record of this morning is a shocking one, though not much worse than each day for several days past.

This certificate of the Ohio Valley Steam Power Brick and Tile Company, of Martinsville, Belmont county, with fifty thousand dollars, and the certificate for the extension of the corporate limits of the village of Eaton, was filed at Columbus Saturday.

We learn that JOEL WOODS, Esq., of Martinsville, President of the Wheeling & Lake Erie Railroad Company, left for New York yesterday, with the expectation of making a contract before his return for the building of that road.

Two Bellaire Agricultural works will start their machinery in the new building on the first of January next, the day of the annual meeting of the stockholders.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

CHRISTMAS IN THE CITY.—This great festival was very generally observed in this city. Appropriate religious services were held in the Catholic and Episcopal churches. The weather was very fine—too fine, if there is anything in the old saw which says "a green Christmas makes a fat graveyard." The sun shone out brightly and warmly, and we do not remember to have ever seen so many persons on the streets on any occasion.
From early in the morning until night the sidewalks on the principal thoroughfares were crowded with persons going to or returning from places of public resort.
A most lamentable feature of the day was the large number of intoxicated individuals who circulated without let or hindrance, wherever they listed. And it was a matter of very general remark that many of those who were drunk were boys ranging from ten to fifteen years old. The proportion of this class under the influence of strong drink was unusually large, and afforded a subject of serious consideration to those who feel an interest in the character of the next generation. Some means should be inaugurated at once to rescue the youth of the city from the maelstrom of intemperance.

So far as we heard there were no casualties of a serious nature. One of slight character is mentioned in another paragraph. Several ladies had their fingers scorched with fireworks, the eye-lashes of a few others were singed. The firing of pistols and setting off juvenile fireworks was very well maintained throughout the day in direct violation of the ordinance "made and provided" in relation thereto, and to the great danger of those who attempted to pass along the streets with horses. This thing should be stopped and we trust that another year will see it abolished, never to be re-inaugurated.

COMMEMORABLE.—The citizens of Hany-town and vicinity have contributed over one hundred dollars in money and a large lot of clothing for the benefit of the soldiers by the fires in the West.

FINISHED.—The grading of Market street, south of the bridge, was finished yesterday.

REMAINED TO JAIL.—Joseph Coleman was brought before Esqr. Cohan yesterday, pursuant to an order of postponement, to have a further hearing on the charge of stabbing McManus last Saturday night week in Centre Wheeling.

The testimony was heard on the 19th inst., but it was judged best to make no final disposition of the case until the result of the wounding would be known.
McManus was present in the Justice's office yesterday, and there is now a good prospect that he will survive his injuries.
No additional witnesses were examined, and Esqr. C. being satisfied that death would not probably ensue, he required him to give bond in the sum of two thousand dollars for his appearance at the next term of the Circuit Court. Coleman was unable to meet the requirement, and was remanded to jail.

BREAK UP.—The river will probably be found full of ice this morning. A dispatch was received yesterday afternoon from Pittsburgh, that the "break" occurred there at 1 P. M. A telegram from the Captain of the Argway at Rochester, stated that the ice was moving there, and that the A. was safe. Word came from Wells-ville that the river was full of running ice there also; and it was reported here last evening that the J. W. Garrett, lying at Steubenville, was breaking up the ice at that point in order to make herself barges more secure.—The Anderson got up steam, and went up to the Water Works for a better harbor, while the Science sought safety in the mouth of the creek.—The marks here indicated last evening, five feet in the channel; at Pittsburgh the stage yesterday morning was six feet three inches and rising.

ROW IN MARTINSVILLE.—There was a row in Martinsville, Christmas, which resulted in the beating of a man named Linn. Three or four young fellows attacked Linn and overpowered him. He was badly used up. No arrests have been made so far as our informant knew. One or two of his assailants fled to this city, and we believe found themselves before the police court, yesterday morning, for offences committed here.

BOY SHOT.—The only casualty we heard of as occurring in the city, Christmas, was the shooting of a boy named Wincher, in North Wheeling. He was standing a hundred feet or more from a group of boys firing pistols, when he was struck on the head with a wad, but not seriously hurt.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, December 26.—The 13th Night Revelers will give their third annual representation on Friday, January 5, instead of the 6th, which comes on Saturday, in grand procession and ball at Opera Hall. Fashionable society here look forward to the 13th night as the crowning event of the season. The representation for '72 promises to be a brilliant affair.
John Hampton, first officer of the ship Success, was accidentally drowned; Mrs.
Waldron accidentally caught fire and burned to death; H. Busch was shot dead by Joel Cannon; two persons were dangerously stabbed, and two dangerously shot; and nine boys were severely injured by a gunpowder explosion, two dangerously, during Christmas day and night. The police made 192 arrests.
All manner of offences were committed.
Drunkenness predominated. All occurred Sunday and Christmas.

THE WEATHER TO-DAY.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 26—7:30 P. M.

PROBABILITIES.

The area of cold clearing weather, with Northerly winds, will probably move Eastward on Wednesday, over the Lakes, and extend Southwestward to Tennessee.
The area of cloudy and threatening weather will pass Northeastward over the Middle and Eastern States—possibly with light snow and rain to-night. Partially cloudy and mild weather, on Wednesday, in the Gulf and South Atlantic States, with rain in Alabama and Georgia. Dangerous winds not anticipated for this evening.

MILWAUKEE.

MILWAUKEE, December 26.—Christmas passed off very quietly. One noticeable feature was the absence of evergreens, which was owing to the northern fires.
The celebration at the National Military Academy was all that the wounded heroes could desire. Gen. Woolley being vied with by a sumptuous dinner. A beautiful theatre is now being prepared, connected with the asylum, frescoed and provided with scenery sufficient for the enactment of any drama.

The Case of the Florida-Blank

Cartridge Story Contradicted.
HAYATA, December 26.—A positive decision is given to the report that the Spanish man of war Vasco de Nunez fired a blank cartridge at the steamer Florida when she was leaving St. Thomas. The Constantia, a newspaper of this city, says that orders had previously been issued to the vessels of the Spanish squadron to cease annoying the Florida, and to retire from the vicinity.

River News.

CAIRO, ILL., Dec. 26.—Arrived, Mary MacDonald, from St. Louis, at 1 P. M.; St.
Joseph, from Memphis, at 5 P. M.; Bee, from Memphis, at 8 A. M. Departed for the Arkansas, Belle of Memphis, at 10 P.
M. Weather clear and cold.

Steamer News.

CINCINNATI, December 26.—The river is six feet two inches and falling to-day; it will probably be rising to-night. Navigation has been resumed each way. Very little ice running. Drizzling rain tonight.

FRIGHTFUL RAILROAD ACCI- DENT IN IOWA.

Fall of a Bridge—Two Locomotives, two Tenders and two Cars Precipitated 27 feet.—Three Men Killed and others Injured.—A Worse Disaster Narrowly Escaped.

CHICAGO, December 26.—A letter from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, dated the 25th, says:
As the St. Paul express on the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Minnesota Railroad, about seven o'clock Saturday evening was crossing the Shell Rock river, near the town of Rockford, in the northern part of the State, the bridge gave way, precipitating into the stream two locomotives with their tenders, and also a baggage and caboose car a distance of 27 feet. The engineer of the first locomotive, E. S. Judd, was instantly killed by being buried beneath his engine, while the fireman escaped un-harmful. The engineer of the second locomotive, on the other hand, escaped.
The fireman, Robt. Tolston, was killed.
The brakeman, J. W. Bartlett, at his post between the baggage and passenger coach, was also killed. A baggage man and a section hand had their legs broken, and a gentleman named A. Towne had three ribs fractured, while a few others were variously bruised. Fortunately the passenger coach was stopped just in time to prevent it from plunging with the rest, this saving the inmates. Mr. Towne, with his broken bones, picked up the baggage master and drew him to the upper end of the car, which stood on a steeply inclined plane, where he was taken out of a window by the conductor. Mr. Towne then sank from exhaustion, and was rescued by some one crawling in after him.
By the greatest exertion on the part of J. B. Loomis and E. B. Sill, the two conductors of the train, it was saved from fire by rubbing on snow after it was several times ablaze, although they both froze their hands in doing so. Had it burned with the wounded inside the result would have been terrible indeed.
The bridge was a Howe truss. The two engines were on the train on account of the heavy drifts of snow. It is feared the bridge had been tampered with by some evil disposed persons.

CLEVELAND.

Killed on the Railroad—Arrival of Alexis.
CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 27.—A young man named William Schuster was killed yesterday, near the union depot in this city, by a locomotive. He slipped and fell upon the track and the engine passed over him.

The Grand Duke Alexis arrived here this evening at 5:45, and was received at the depot by the mayor and a committee of citizens. He was serenaded this evening. To-morrow he will be driven about the city and to Newburg, where he will visit the iron mills and other manufacturies. On his return he will review the fire department, and then visit the National Inventors' Exposition, which opens to-morrow. The Duke will remain in the city until Thursday. His welcome was very cordial.

Outbreak of Ku-Klux in Saline Co., Missouri.

St. Louis, Dec. 26.—The Democrat's special from Sedalia, Mo., says Christmas day witnessed a preconcerted outbreak of Ku-Klux at Marshall, Saline county, Mo., and immediately a large number of armed men turned out in pursuit. Negro patrols were placed near the town, and every traveler halted and questioned. All business was suspended, and mob violence reigned supreme. It is not known how many negros were killed, but Edward Wilson, who left Marshall at 11 o'clock, saw the dead bodies of five, two hanging by the neck and three lying in the road, and one terribly wounded, having his shoulder shot away. At the latest accounts a crowd of armed men were starting out, swearing they would clean out every negro in the county.

TENNESSEE.

Murder at a Christmas Party.

NASHVILLE, Dec. 26.—Thos. Hawkins shot and killed Port Jelton at a festive party Christmas night, near Cowan, on the Nashville & Chattanooga railroad.
They had quarreled during the day, and on meeting at night, Hawkins immediately attacked Jelton, the second shot passing through his heart and killing him instantly. Jelton is the seventh of his family who have met violent deaths. One of his brothers was killed recently in Nashville while resisting the police.

Murderous Affair at Florence, Ky.

CINCINNATI, December 26.—At Florence, Ky., near Covington, on Sunday night, the negro population had a Christmas tree at their church. Among the visitors was a white man named Henry Snyder who, being intoxicated, was disorderly and took unwarrantable liberties with the females. Peter Aylor, one of the negros, remonstrated with him. Snyder drew a pistol and shot him in the head, inflicting a wound which will probably prove fatal, he then shot three others, two of whom were seriously wounded.

Ten Millions for a Southern Canal.

NEW YORK, December 26.—A Herald dispatch says that the memorial of the Georgia Legislature which has been presented to Congress asks an appropriation of ten millions to construct a canal to connect the Mississippi with the Atlantic.
The route proposed is through Georgia.

Mr. Bottwell's Defense.

NEW YORK, December 26.—The Treasury's Washington letter says that Treasurer's clerks who profess to speak advisedly on Treasury matters say that Secretary Bottwell is preparing a defence of his course in the Syndicate job.

Oil Well Burned—Six Men Injured.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 26.—The Cosmopolitan Well, at Scrub Grass, took fire this morning by an explosion of gas, while drilling, severely injuring six men, including one of the owners—Mr. Bot-ford. The derrick was entirely destroyed, but the fire was extinguished.

WASHINGTON.

A DULL DAY.

WASHINGTON, December 26.—There was no formal meeting of the Cabinet today, several members being absent from the city. A few visitors only called on the President.

There is due this government by that of Colombia $170,000, being the balance of the awards under the convention of 1857 and 1864, no payment having been made since 1868. The Colombian Minister here wants extension of the time four years, as his government is bankrupt.

C. C. Bowen, of South Carolina, is here looking after his contested election case, which will be taken up by the Committee on Elections directly after the holidays. All his papers are before the committee, but those of DeLorge are not, the attorney of the latter declining them because DeLorge failed to pay the expenses attending the taking of the testimony, amounting to $1,600. This attorney says that DeLorge has no prospect whatever for the retention of the seat now held by him, but that Bowen was clearly elected by the people of his Congressional district.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue in a communication to the Secretary of the Treasury says he is of the opinion that the amount of taxes paid or payable upon dividends, interest and undivided profits of corporations for the last five months of the calendar year of 1870, is not far from $3,000,000.

The rumor that Solicitor General Brislow's resignation of that office, was not, as has been stated, accepted by the President, but to-day he received a communication from the President which induced him to withdraw it. He left for Kentucky this evening, and will return the first of January.

A communication has been received at the Treasury Department from the counsel for defendants in the celebrated Tichborne case, in which the Secretary is advised to furnish him all the information in his possession concerning the whereabouts in certain months in 1854, of all the registered vessels of the United States, bearing the name of Osprey. It will be recalled that in the evidence in the case, it was shown that the contestant for the Tichborne estate was a passenger in an English vessel named Bella, which was sundered off Rio, on the South American coast, and that he was picked up among others, by the Captain of an American vessel named Osprey.

John L. Clem, the drummer-boy of Shi-ing to tender his thanks to the Presi-

Indignation over the Acquittal of McGehan.

CINCINNATI, December 26.—An indignation meeting was held at Hamilton tonight, on account of the arrival of Tom McGehan, recently tried for the murder of Myers. The meeting was held at the court house, and was largely attended.
Resolutions were adopted condemning the courts for freeing persons guilty of crimes, and demanding that McGehan shall leave Hamilton.

Crime in Indiana.

TERRACE, Ind., Dec. 26.—In Pherson township, this county, to-day, one negro shot another. The names of both are unknown.

The coroner left the city for Nevins township, to-night, to hold an inquest on the body of John L. Spring, an old man who is reported to have been murdered at his house in that township. No details are yet reported here.

A Chicago Journalist Gets a Christ- mas Gift.

CHICAGO, December 26.—The employes of the Chicago Journal office to-day presented to Mr. Wilson, proprietor, as a token of esteem the first copy of the Chicago Evening Journal printed after the great fire. It is contained in a rich and massive frame of gold and silver. A flow soul (moistened) followed.

The Arkansas (Chicot) Troubles.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 26.—A Memphis appel to the Enquirer says: "The latest from Chicot states that the negroes have disbanded, and all but fifty have returned to their homes. The fifty mentioned have placed themselves under the sheriff. No fears are entertained as to retaliation by the whites."

GUHA.

MADRID, December 25.—Admiral To-pete, Minister of the Colonies, has announced his intention of making a return in the volunteer organization in Ha-vanna. Reinforcements still continue to go forward to aid in the suppression of the insurrection.

Suicide of a Pittsburgh Stock Broker.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., December 26.—Jas.
W. Kennedy, a stock broker, shot himself yesterday in his office. He had been unsuccessful in stock speculations, which, it is supposed, unsettled his mind. His affairs were found to be not badly involved.

Ten Millions for a Southern Canal.

dispatch says that the memorial of the
of ten millions to construct a canal to connect the Mississippi with the Atlantic.

politan Well, at Scrub Grass, took fire
this morning by an explosion of gas,

ford. The derrick was entirely destroyed,
but the fire was extinguished.

A Singular Accident.

CINCINNATI, December 26.—Edward Hesse, a farmer living near Bourbon, Indiana, while intoxicated, yesterday, fell from his wagon on a sharp spike, which penetrated his brain, producing instant death.

The Boylston Bank Robbery.

NASHUA, N. H., Dec. 26.—William A.
Glover, who was tried in August last charged with being an accessory before the fact to the Boylston bank robbery was brought before the court to-day, and had his bail reduced from $30,000 to $5,000, which he will probably procure.

Bloody Christmas Affray in Vermont

PUTTAND, Vt., Dec. 26.—On Christmas day, a bloody affray took place at East Arlington, in the drinking saloon of Farwell & Lawrence. The keepers of the saloon shot five persons, two of whom have since died, and two more are mortally wounded. One of the victims was Far-well's son, 8 years of age. Farwell & Lawrence are under arrest.

Tragedy at Cambridge, Ohio.

CINCINNATI, December 26.—At Cambridge, Ohio, Saturday night, three brothers—George, Thomas and Milton Mc-Manaway—made an attack upon parties in the house of John B. Williams. Stones
